

Sometimes A Light Surprises

Words by William Cowper

Music by Walt Harrah

♩ = 104 INTRO

D G rain may!"

bread! joice

1. Some-
2. In
3. No
4. The

5 VERSE

times a light sur - pri - ses the Christ - ian while he pur - sings It ho - ly con - tem - pla - tion we sweet - ly then us sue The mat - ter what life brings, God will sure - ly bear through Who fig tree may not blos - som, no grapes the vine can bear Though is the the Lord who ri - ses with heal - ing in his wings When theme of the li God's sal - va - tion and find it e - ver new Set gives the the - lies cloth - ing will and clothe his peo - ple too Be - all the field should with - er and wor - ry fills the air Yet

7

Bm G

9

D

com - forts are — de - clin - ing He grants the soul a - gain a free from pre - sent sor - row we cheer - ful - ly — can say, let - neath the spread - ing a - bid - vens this world is dai - ly fed and God the same a - bid - ing his praise shall tune my voice for 11

G A Bm C

sea - son of clear shin - ing — to cheer it af - ter thee un - know to - mor - row — bring with it what - ter he who feeds the spar - row — will give his child - ren while in him con - fid - ing I hap - pi - ly — re -

13

G A Bm C

sea - son of clear shin - ing — to cheer it af - ter
thee un - know to - mor - row — bring with it what - ter
he who feeds the spar - row — will give his child - ren
while in him con - fid - ing I hap - pi - ly — re