GRACE PARTNERS

M&M&M&M

The W family serves with Pioneers in N. Africa, desiring to catalyze a disciple-making movement until all in their country are within reach of the gospel.

PRaise: God led us to an American friend who has a lot of experience coaching business start-ups, particularly first time entrepreneurs. He has agreed to coach us. He lives locally and knows the context well, so this is a huge encouragement as we try to open a business.

PRayer: In order to enroll M1 in a formal school, we have been looking for an English-speaking aid who will be with him in class. The director of a preschool we visited last month seemed very welcoming and willing to accommodate M1's needs. M1 will be immersed in Arabic and some French which we hope will help him develop in these languages too. Thankfully, the director speaks English (though the teachers do not) and has said she will take a special interest in helping M1 to integrate. Please ask that Father would confirm if this is the right school for M1 and if so, that he will have a successful start September 1.

PRayer: We've been able to deepen our relationship with a local fellowship in town. Mr. W was able to teach from the Word one week and we've all been trying to get to know individuals better to develop trust and discern opportunities where Father would have us bless and serve. We would like to find ways to foster growth in the Word and prayer among the flock. We need wisdom for the best way to do this particularly with our schedule and capacity limitations with the boys.

PRayer: Two weeks ago, I (Mr. W) began experiencing some unusual shoulder pain followed a few days later by numbness in my left hand. After a consultation and MRI, we discovered that there is swelling in my neck that is producing a pinched nerve in my arm. I must wear a rigid cervical collar for at least 3 weeks and check in at that point. Please ask for Father's healing touch—that everything would return to proper alignment, that the injury would not worsen and for grace trying to navigate my responsibilities with this limitation on my ability to move.
